

Emerald Online Subject Collections
14 online business and management book series and journal collections

What are Emerald Online Subject Collections?

Emerald's Online Subject Collections comprise journals and book series in the field of business and management. With 14 collections available, each covering a different subject discipline, you can select only the areas you require to create a truly customized resource.

Each collection is complete with both current and archive research from your chosen subject area and also includes additional support and resources to help you gain the most from your subscription.

Choose from the following 14 collections:

- Accounting and Finance
- Business Ethics and Law
- Economics
- Education
- Enterprise and Innovation
- Health Care/Health Care Management
- Human Resource Management
- International Business
- Library and Information Studies
- Management Science/Management Studies
- Marketing
- Organization Studies
- Strategy
- Tourism and Hospitality Management.

Why choose Emerald's Online Subject Collections?

Tailored – with each collection based around a specific management discipline, you can ensure that the information you receive is directly relevant to your interest area

Comprehensive – containing both journals and book series, Emerald Online Subject Collections provide extensive coverage in each subject area

High quality – Emerald's scholarly journals are peer reviewed and many are Thomson Reuters (ISI) ranked. All of Emerald's book series are commissioned, so users can be assured that they are accessing verified quality research

Cost-effective – by tailoring your subscription to specific subject areas you will not pay for information that is not relevant and, if a new title is launched or acquired in your collection, then you will automatically receive access as soon as the content is available online ... at no extra cost

Continuous access – all research is available online through a simple search and browse facility, which can be used by any number of people at the same time

No embargoes – your subscription will provide you with immediate access to the latest articles and chapters in your chosen subject area(s) as they are published

You can now access articles sooner with Emerald EarlyCite. This new pre-publication service enables subscribers to access journal articles prior to official publication. Papers will be made available at least three months and, in some cases, as much as one year before they appear in the hard copy and final online journal issue.

Save time – with journals and book series available through one integrated platform, you will save vital search time by pin-pointing the right information quickly

International – access research from an international author base to ensure a global perspective.

What does a subscription include?

Journals and book series:

An online collection of full text journals and book series published in your chosen subject area. The electronic format enables you to access a large number of articles and chapters published in previous years and offers perpetual access to all the content published during the years in which you subscribe.

Additional support and resources:

In addition to the high quality research from your chosen subject area, a subscription to an Emerald Online Subject Collection also includes access to:

Management reviews – Emerald's Management Reviews is a vast database of 250,000+ article reviews from the top 300 management publications world-wide, as selected by an independent board of industry experts

Research Zone – designed to provide advice and support on how to keep up to date with the latest research and developments in the management area

Learning Zone – includes a section of useful resources for those studying MBAs, degrees, executive courses and business-related subjects

Teaching Zone – designed to provide support and ideas for faculty involved in teaching business and management

For Authors – unrivalled support package offering assistance on writing and submitting articles to the peer review and publication process

For Librarians – designed specifically for the library and information science (LIS) community to improve information services and better serve library users

Note to librarians and collection managers:

All Emerald Online Subject Collections are supplied under our benchmark user-friendly licence, encouraging wide usage, no downloads or simultaneous access restrictions, no DRM restrictions, no restrictions on use in learning management systems or virtual learning environments. Simply sign up, use what you have subscribed to, and relax.

Who should subscribe?

Emerald publishes "research you can use". This means that each collection produces research papers that support the academic community, as well as being of interest to managers.
